

HOMELAND SECURITY AND EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

Technical Training Announcement

Millicent W. West, Director

Special Needs Emergency Planning Workshop

May 25, 2011

PURPOSE

The Federal Emergency Management Agency requires State and Local Governments to maintain a well-trained cadre of emergency management professionals. The District of Columbia Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency (HSEMA) Hazard Mitigation Program supports this mandate by providing specialized training to District and Private Sector stakeholders having a role before, during and after major disasters.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course provides an insightful understanding of Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) emergency planning process as prescribed by the FEMA Comprehensive Preparedness Guide (CPG 101) Developing and Maintaining Emergency Operations Plans; discuss application and integration of the newly developed special needs definition within the District emergency planning process and agency emergency plans; examine planning contingencies for special needs populations using a multi-hazard scenario with emphasis on hurricane preparedness for the upcoming season.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Potential course participants include but are not limited to emergency planners, private non-profit and volunteer organizations, civic leaders and others having a role in disaster management.

TRAINING SITE

DC Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency
2720 Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue, SE – Emergency Operations Center
Washington, DC 20002

COURSE HOURS

9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Please confirm your participation by contacting:

Patrice White
Chief, Plans and Preparedness Division
Email: Patrice.White@dc.gov